Gordfoll & Graw 600 MT

10th, 11th and F Sts. N. W.

Tomorrow, Thursday,

Our Annual June Special Sale of Manufacturers' Samples Cambric, Nainsook and Muslin Undergarments,

Consisting of Women's Fine Petticoats, Gowns, Drawers, Corset Covers and Chemises; also Children's and Infants' Long and Short Dresses.

These samples were secured from one of our leading manufacturers at nominal prices, and are strictly high-class goods of the very latest shapes and designs. Some are plain; others are trimmed with dainty laces, embroideries and ribbons, in such styles as good taste suggests. The collection, while large in the aggregate, comprises but one or two garments of a kind. These will be on sale Thursday morning

Very Much Below the Regular Prices.

This sale occurs but once a year and its importance is well understood by our customers. Begins at 8 o'clock.

Special Sale of #### Summer Hotel and Cottage Supplies.

We desire to call special attention to our unusually large and comprehensive stock of Table, Bed and Toilet Linens, Quilts, Comforters, Sheets, Pillow Slips, Draperies, Curtains, Window Shades, Window and Door Screens, Glass and China Wares, Furniture and general Household Supplies.

These goods were purchased to meet the demand of cottagers, hotel keepers and all those occupying country and suburban homes for the summer. A stock of everything, uniformly reasonable in price. Not one thing very cheap because there is competition or because the article is well known and the other dozen things not so well known at high prices, but the entire stock priced fairly as it ought to be.

Interest in the Organization of the New City Council.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

Evening Star Bureau, No. 727 King St. Bell Telephone No. 106. ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 31, 1899. Judge Edmund Waddill opened an adjourned session of the United States district court in this city at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The first case on the docket, and perhaps the only one to be taken up at this ssion, was that of the Washington Steamboat Company against the Norfo'k and Washington Steamboat Company, which is an admiralty suit growing out of a collision which occurred in the fall of 1897 between the steamer Newport News and the ferry Columbia off Alexandria, About forty-five witnesses have been summoned and their examination will probably consume a considerable time. Attorneys James R. Caton of this city and Hughes of Norfolk are representing the plaintiff company, and Attorneys Parker of New York and White of Norfolk are conducting the de-

Base Ball Club Organized.

A meeting of the "Evening Star Base Ball Club" was held last night at No. 1301 King street, when the club was reorganized under the name of "The Alexandrians" and the following officers elected: John Hillary, president; Fred. Hohenstein, vice president; Edmund Clark, secretary; Jo-Poss, treasurer; George Chichester, property holder, and Richard Cox, manager.

The following members were enrolled: Harry Richards, William Poss, Fred. Gar-yey, Fred. Hohenstein, Lawrence Bright, Joseph Reynolds, Clarence Bright, George Chichester, Peter Brenner, Harry Garvey, Harry Chichester, George Pettit, Sydney Wheatley, Edward Baumgartner and Edmund Clark. The club is ready to consider challenges from any Washington teams. They should be addressed to Edmund Clark, No. 823 Oronoco street. The old fair grounds will be used as a ball field.

The New Council.

General interest is being shown in the rganization of the newly elected council, which will be effected July 1. So many changes in the personnel of that body resulted from the recent election that practically a new regime is expected to be set on foot when the council-elect becomes operative. The election of a president for common council excites most interest. Mr. Hubert Snowden, the incumbent, has given general satisfaction in the discharge of his duties, and it is understood that he will be a candidate for re-election. Councilman John H. Strider will converse him the man John H. Strider will oppose him, the friends of the former claiming his election by two or three majority out of a membership of sixteen.

There will be a contest in the board of aldermen over the selection of a clerk. Among those prominently spoken of for the office are: Messrs. Robert E. Knight, the incumbent; Frank G. Grimes and William L. Hoy. Various other minor offices are also to be filled.

Probable Sale of Factory.

Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the immense old building on North Washington between Oronoco and Pendleton streets, which, in anti-bellum times, was successfully operated as a cotton factory. This building has long been in disuse, although repeated attempts have been made to purchase it with a view to re-suming the cotton business. It is owned by the Garrett heirs of Baltimore. Mr. J. M. Hill of this city is soliciting its pur-chase, and has received the option of doing so, provided certain manufacturing indus-tries can be put into operation. The contries can be put into operation. The con-sideration is not mentioned.

General and Personal.

The Decoration day exercises at the National cemetery yesterday were restricted to the ritual prescribed by the Grand Army. Davis Post assembled at the cemetery at 5 o'clock. Mr. A. B. Travers was acting commander, W. P. Graves, chaplain, and W. T. Emerson, officer of the day. After services flowers were strewn over the graves, Mr. John Lucas sounded bugle taps and miniature flags were placed over each mound. Beautiful floral tributes were presented by the Woman's Auxiliary, R. E. Lee Camp. Confederate Veterans.

Hubert Donnally, son of Mr. John Donnally, was run over by a shifting engine on the Southern railroad vesterday of terroon. the Southern railroad yesterday afternoon his foot being badly crushed. Dr. Klip-stein, who was called, is hopeful of saving the injured member. In the police court this morning Mayor Simpson fined Richard Parker $5 for assaulting Mary Francis. The funeral of George Dudley, colored, took place this afternoon. Interment was made in Bethel cametery.

made in Bethel cametery.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Great Falls Power Company, held in the Braddock House, this afternoon, the following directors were elected: Paul Butler, Prederick C. Stevens, Oscar T. Crosby, George W. Crosby and Charles H. Leib, The following officers were chosen. Chas. H. Leib, president: James B. Eackey, secretary and treasurer.

FOR NEW TRIAL.

Motion Filed by Attorneys for George W. Horton. In the case of George W. Horton, recently convicted of the murder of Mrs. Jane Nicholson, a motion for a new trial has been filed by the attorneys for the prisoner, Messrs. Tracy L. Jeffords, Robert W. Wells and Warder Vorhees. The reasons assigned are as follows: Errors committed by the trial justice in impaneling the jury; admitting evidence upon the trial which was not legally admissible, and to which counsel objected when it was offered; refusing to admit evidence offered by the defendant upon his trial; refusal of the trial justice to grant prayers asked by the defendant's counsel; granting instructions asked by the prosecu-tion, to which objections were made at the time by defendant's counsel; permitting a witness to testify, against the objection of defendant's counsel, whose name and ad-dress had not been served upon the defendant, as required by law; errors commit-ted by the trial justice in his instructions to the jury; newly discovered evidence which the defendant and his counsel were not able, by due diligence, to discover before the conclusion of the trial; other errors committed by the trial justice

Victims of Liquor.

Elias Hammond was complained against n the Police Court today by Policeman Clifford as an alleged habitual drunkard. "I wasn't drunk yesterday," said Hammond, "and where the officer found me I had a right to be.' "Where was that?" Judge Kimball in-

"In the Thyson House hay loft," was Hammond's answer.
"The trouble with you," said the judge,
"is that you are always drunk."
"How can that be?" the defendant asked. "I sell strawberries every day, and if I was drunk all the time I couldn't carry a crate of berries."

"You may work during the day," the judge said, "and you may get drunk every night."
He was sentenced to thirty days on the farm in default of security.

Sam Burgee, a victim of alcohol, who knows what it is to spend time in the workhouse, was released from prison a week ago. He resumed his old habits soon after his release, and "held-up" some of his former friends for money.

"He's been hanging about D street under the influence of liquor since he got out," said Mr. Devlin. "When I refused to give him money for liquor he insulted me. An-other man whom he annoyed knocked him Burgee admitted his fault, but denied what was said against him this morning. what was said against him this morning.

"How many times have you been sent down this year?" the judge asked.

"Three times," he answered. "Twice in March and once in May."

"Did you go down under your right "The last time the policeman sent me lown as Sam Murphy." A sentence of sixty days was imposed.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.
